Objectives:

1. The main objective of a medical camp is to provide initial care to people in life-threatening conditions which reflect the unique strengths and goals of medical ethics.
2. Provide free and high-quality medical services for the poor population.
3. Raise health awareness among the community and teach them to deal with communicable and non-communicable.
4. Register rare and severe cases and refer them to specialized centers.

5. Evaluate the living conditions and determine the obstacles and challenges to work on solving their problems.
6. Refer medical cases towards surgeries if required.

Outcomes:

Healthcare is a basic right of a human being. And that should be available for everyone. The physicians conducting the camps act in the best interest of the patients. They inform the whole truth about the diseases and treatments of the patients. Even being every patient attending the camps are treated similarly and cared for evenly. We try to help people through such programs at regular interval for the betterness of the rural places.
